

American Knabstrupper Association Newsletter

Spring 2007 Bringing Some Bling to the Show Ring!

Welcome the New Spring Foals!

Macarn Farm in Canton, TX, has three new spotted lovelies! Two fillies and a colt. These are second generation U.S. born Knabstruppers! The black leopard filly and the black blanket colt will be offered for sale.

Cedar Creek Stables of Pastures, Virginia, has two new Rivaldi fillies and an Ecuador colt! The colt was sold almost immediately and the fillies are being offered for sale.

Be sure to send us YOUR foal announcements so they can be featured in our next newsletter!

AKA Joins USDF All Breeds Awards Program!

The AKA has become a part of the United States Dressage Federation's All Breeds Awards Program in 2007! Be sure to send the USDF a copy of your Knabstrupper's AKA registration Certificate to declare for the awards! You can download the form on our website.

To learn more about the All Breeds Awards Program visit the USDF's website.

Knabstruppers to be Featured in "USDF Connection" Magazine

Be on the lookout for the Knabstrupper to be soon featured in the United States Dressage Federation's monthly magazine, USDF Connection. They have obtained the background information for the article and it should appear later in the year!

New Members! Welcome!

AKA welcomes its newest member, Michelle Doucette, and her lovely imported Knabstrupper gelding, Majco Thunders Hatrick. Look for them in the show ring around their home base of Middleton, MA.

And give another warm welcome to Donna Current of Bloomingdale, Ohio, who joins us after purchasing CCS Eowyn from Cedar Creek Stables.

New member Lisa Williams brings us a new imported Knabstrupper stallion, Fable! He will be a very welcome addition to our breeding stock here in N. America!

Last, but certainly not least, AKA welcomes Holly Flowers of Carmen, Idaho. She joins us after importing three Knabstrupper weanlings!

Relevant Links

AKA Website

Registry Rules

AKA Forms

Knabstruppers for Sale

American Knabstrupper Association
17302 Swansbury
Cypress, Texas 77429
281-373-0125